Department of Social Services / ABI Waiver Overview of Services
Provider Services Qualifications & Service Overview
For services which may be provided by Individual Providers

The ABI Waiver classifies providers as three types:

Agency Provider – Providers who provide services through their agency provider

Household Employee Providers – Private providers who perform chore, companion, homemaker, personal care assistance and respite services and who are not employed by an agency. The fiscal agent shall make appropriate deductions for FICA (Social Security), FUTA (federal unemployment taxes), UC (state unemployment compensation), and state income taxes on behalf of such individuals. Individual household employee providers shall not provide any service, either alone or in combination with other services, to any individual Waiver participant for more than 25.75 hours per week.

Private Providers – Providers who are self-employed and who are not household employees or employed through an agency. Private providers may provide services such as case management, cognitive / behavioral programs, and independent living skills training. The fiscal agent shall not deduct federal and state taxes on behalf of such providers. Private providers shall not perform services to any individual Waiver participant, either alone or in combination with other services, for more than 25.75 hours per week.

Allied Community Resources is the fiscal agent assigned by the Department of Social Services under the ABI Waiver program. The information contained in this document pertains to providers classified as “Household Employee Providers” and “Private Providers”.

Household Employee Provider Services

Chore Services: Services needed to maintain the individual's home in a clean, sanitary and safe condition. This service includes heavy household chores, such as washing floors, windows and walls and moving heavy items of furniture in order to provide safe access and egress.

Chore service providers are not licensed or regulated. Services shall not be provided by any person who is a relative of the participant, is the participant's conservator, or is a member of the conservator's family.

Qualifications: Must be at least 18 years of age and physically able to perform the services requested, be able to follow instructions given by the participant or the participant's conservator, be able to report changes in the participant's condition or needs, maintain confidentiality, have the ability or skills necessary to meet the participant's needs as stated in the service plan.

Procedure Code: 1532P

Service Limit: May not exceed 8 hours

ABI Basic Training Required: No

Application Required: Yes

Classification: Household Employee Provider

Homemaker Services: Homemaker services consist of general household activities, including meal preparation and routine household chores, such as dusting, bed-making, and vacuuming.

Homemaker services may not be provided by any person who is a relative of the participant, is the participant's conservator, or is a member of the conservator's family.

Qualifications: Must be at least 18 years of age and physically able to perform the services requested, be able to follow instructions given by the participant or the participant's conservator, be able to report changes in the participant's condition or needs, maintain confidentiality, have the ability or skills necessary to meet the participant's needs as stated in the service plan.

State of Connecticut Regulation of
Department of Social Services
Concerning
The Acquired Brain Injury Waiver Program

The Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies are amended by adding sections 17b-260a-1 to 17b-260a-18, inclusive, as follows:

(NEW) Sec. 17b-260a-1. Purpose

The Acquired Brain Injury (ABI) waiver program is established pursuant to sections 17b-260a(a) and 17b-260a(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes and 42 USC 1396n(c). The ABI waiver program provides, within the limitations described in sections 17b-260a-2 to 17b-260a-18, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, a range of nonmedical, home and community-based services to individuals 18 years of age or older with an ABI who, without such services, would otherwise require placement in a hospital, nursing facility (NF), or Intermediate Care Facility for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID). The intention of the ABI waiver program is to enable such individuals, through person-centered planning, to receive home and community-based services necessary to allow such individuals to live in the community and avoid institutionalization.

(NEW) Sec. 17b-260a-2. Scope

Sections 17b-260a-1 to 17b-260a-18, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies set forth the requirements for eligibility and payment of services to eligible individuals participating in the ABI waiver program. These regulations also describe program requirements; services available; service requirements; department, provider and individual responsibilities; residential setting requirements; and limitations under the ABI waiver program.

(NEW) Sec. 17b-260a-3. Definitions

As used in sections 17b-260a-1 to 17b-260a-18, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies:

(1) “Acquired brain injury” or “ABI” means the combination of focal and diffuse central nervous system dysfunctions, immediate or delayed, at the brainstem level or above. These dysfunctions may be acquired through physical trauma, oxygen deprivation, infection, or a discrete incident that is toxic, surgical, or vascular in nature. The term “ABI” does not include disorders that are congenital, developmental, degenerative, associated with aging, or that meet the definition of intellectual disability as defined in section 1-1g of the Connecticut General Statutes;

(2) “Acquired brain injury nursing facility” or “ABI NF” means a type of nursing facility that provides specialized programs for persons with an acquired brain injury;

(3) “Acquired Brain Injury waiver program” or “ABI waiver program” or “the program” means the programs administered by the Department of Social Services and established pursuant to sections 17b-260a(a) and 17b-260a(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes, as described in Medicaid waivers approved by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to 42 USC 1396n as amended from time to time, for the provision of home and community-based services to individuals with acquired brain injury;

(4) “ABI Waiver I” means the Acquired Brain Injury waiver administered by the Department of Social Services, as authorized by section 17b-260a(a) of the Connecticut General Statutes and approved by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services with an initial effective date of January 1, 1999;

(5) “ABI Waiver II” means the Acquired Brain Injury waiver administered by the Department of Social Services, as authorized by section 17b-260a(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes, and approved by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services with an initial effective date of December 1, 2014;

(6) “Acquired Brain Injury waiver services” or “ABI waiver services” means all or some of the services provided to individuals in the ABI waiver program;

(7) “Activity of daily living” or “ADL” means an activity or task that is essential to an individual’s health, welfare, and safety, including, but not limited to, bathing, dressing, eating, transfers, and bowel and bladder care;

(8) “Agency provider” means a provider employed by an agency, who provides ABI waiver services to individuals participating in the ABI waiver program;

(9) “Alternative institutional care costs” means the costs of institutional care that the individual would otherwise incur, but for the support of ABI waiver services;

(10) “Applicant” means an individual who, directly or through a representative, completes an ABI waiver program application form and submits it to the department;

(11) “Applied income” means the portion of the individual’s income that remains after all deductions and disregards are subtracted and that may be applied to the cost of waiver services;

(12) “Assessment” means a comprehensive, multidimensional written evaluation conducted by nonmedical department personnel or agents, using a standard assessment form that is used to determine whether an individual meets the level-of-care criteria to participate in the ABI waiver program;

(13) “Chronic disease hospital” or “CDH” means a long-term hospital having facilities, medical staff, and necessary personnel for the diagnosis, care, and treatment of a wide range of chronic diseases;

(14) “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Social Services;

(15) “Cost-effective” or “cost-effectiveness” means the department’s determination that payments for the individual’s total service costs do not exceed either the individual caps or available funding for the ABI waiver program;

(16) “Countable income” means all sources of income not excluded under the Medicaid program;

(17) “Department” or “DSS” means the state of Connecticut Department of Social Services or its agent;

(18) “Family member” means a person who is related to the individual by blood, adoption, or marriage;

(19) “Fiscal intermediary” means an agent or agents under contract with the department that is responsible for: paying providers for services delivered; registering providers; providing training and outreach to individuals and providers of services under the ABI waiver program; and performing other administrative functions requested by the department;

(20) “Hands-on care” means assistance with ADLs provided most often, but not exclusively, by home health aides. Hands-on care includes the prompting and cueing necessary for an individual to perform ADLs;

(21) “Home and community-based services” means Medicaid services provided to an individual in that individual’s own home or other community-based setting;

(22) “Home and community-based setting” has the same meaning as provided in 42 CFR 441.301(c)(4)-(5), as amended from time to time;

(23) “Hospital” has the same meaning as provided in 42 CFR 440.10, as amended from time to time;

(24) “Household employee” means a provider who performs ABI recovery assistant I, ABI recovery assistant II, chore, companion, homemaker, independent living skills training, or respite services, and who is employed by the individual and not an agency;

(25) “Individual” means a person with an acquired brain injury who is applying for, or actively participating in, the ABI waiver program;

(26) “Individual cap” means the maximum allowable total cost of the individual’s service plan;

(27) “Integrated work setting” means a work setting where people with disabilities work alongside people without disabilities, for at least minimum wage.

(28) “Intermediate care facility for individuals with intellectual disabilities” or “ICF-IID” has the same meaning as provided in 42 CFR 440.150, as amended from time to time, and is a facility licensed by the Connecticut Department of Developmental Services for the care and treatment of persons with intellectual disabilities;

(29) “Intervention plan” means a document developed by a cognitive behaviorist that identifies the treatment goals and interventions for the individual and team;

(30) “Legal representative” means a guardian, conservator, or an individual holding a power of attorney appointed to act on the individual’s behalf;

(31) “Level of care” means the type of facility, as determined by a care manager or designated agent of the department, needed to care for an individual if the individual were not receiving services under the ABI waiver program. The types of facilities include: a nursing facility, ABI NF, CDH, or ICF-IID;

(32) “Medicaid” or “Medicaid program” means medical and health-related services administered by the state of Connecticut Department of Social Services pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act;

(33) “Medicaid Provider Enrollment Agreement” has the same meaning as provided in section 17b-262-523(23) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, except that such agreement may include addenda specific to the ABI waiver program;

(34) “Neuropsychological evaluation” has the same meaning as provided in section 17b-262-468(17) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;

(35) “Nursing facility” or “NF” has the same meaning as provided in 42 CFR 440.40 and 42 CFR 440.155, as amended from time to time;

(36) “Other community-based services” means services provided by programs administered by the department that are not part of the ABI waiver program, or services provided by programs administered by other state or local agencies that are necessary to maintain the individual in the community;

(37) “Other medical services” means services that are normally included in the department’s payments to NFs, ABI NFs, CDHs, and ICF-IIDs, and that the individual requires, in addition to ABI waiver services, to live in the community. Other medical services include: home health care; nursing services; physical therapy; speech therapy; and occupational therapy;

(38) “Person-centered plan” means a service plan developed by the person-centered team that meets the requirements of 42 CFR 441.301(c)(1)-(3), inclusive, as amended from time to time;

(39) “Person-centered team” means an interdisciplinary group of people organized to assist the individual to develop and implement a service plan. The planning team consists of a care manager, the individual, the legal representative (if applicable), a cognitive behaviorist, any interested family members, or other relevant participants;

(40) “Provider” means an agency provider, household employee or self-employed provider who meets the qualifications established by the department to provide home and community-based services under the ABI waiver program, has signed the Medicaid Provider Enrollment Agreement, and is enrolled in the ABI waiver program;

(41) “Qualified neuropsychologist” means a psychologist who meets the qualifications of section 17b-262-468(16) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;

(42) “Rehabilitation hospital” means a facility performing rehabilitative outpatient hospital services in accordance with the provisions of 42 CFR 440.20(a).

(43) “Representative” means a person who is not a legal representative, and who is acting in support of an individual;

(44) “Self-employed provider” means a person who does not work for an agency, is not a household employee, and meets the qualifications listed in 17b-260a-8 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies to provide certain services under the ABI waiver program;

(45) “Service plan” means an individualized written plan developed through person-centered planning that documents the medical and home and community-based services that are necessary to enable the individual to live in the community instead of an institution. The service plan includes measurable goals, objectives, and documentation of total service costs;

(46) “Supervision or cueing” means daily support such as monitoring, observing, verbal or gestural prompting, verbal coaching and gestural or pictorial cueing that is required in order for the individual to accomplish an ADL. Supervision and cueing must be required on a contemporaneous basis with the performance of the ADL, and does not include a reminder or request to perform an ADL when the individual does not need support beyond such reminder or request in order to accomplish the ADL.

(47) “Total service costs” means the annualized cost of ABI waiver services, other medical services, and other community-based services included in an individual’s service plan that are required in order for the individual to live in the community instead of an institution; and

(48) “Waiting list” means a record maintained by the department that includes the names, and dates of completed ABI waiver applications, of all individuals who have submitted completed applications for ABI waiver services and whose applications have been screened and found to be functionally eligible for the program.

(NEW) Sec. 17b-260a-4. Not an Entitlement

The ABI waiver program is not an entitlement program. Services, waiver slots and access to services under the ABI waiver program may be limited based on available funding and program capacity.

(NEW) Sec. 17b-260a-5. Eligibility

(a) An applicant may be eligible to receive coverage for the cost of the services specified in section 17b-260a-8 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, through the department’s ABI waiver program, if:

(1) The applicant’s countable income is less than 300% of the benefit amount that would be payable under the federal Supplemental Security Income program to an applicant who lives in the applicant’s own home and has no income or resources;

(2) The applicant is otherwise eligible to participate in the department’s Medicaid program, including any applicable asset requirements, under either the working disabled or long-term care eligibility criteria;

(3) The applicant meets the programmatic requirements of subsection (c) of this section; and

(4) The applicant is not ineligible for coverage under subsections (d) or (e) of this section.

(b) The financial requirements for eligibility are as follows:

(1) The applicant’s countable income and assets for purposes of eligibility are determined using the same methodologies the department employs in determining the countable income and assets of an institutionalized applicant for Medicaid, including, but not limited to, the spousal impoverishment rules and spousal post-eligibility rules under section 1924 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1396r-5, for individuals with a community spouse.

(2) Income eligibility determination for ABI waiver services under this section is based solely on the applicant's countable income and does not involve consideration of the incurred medical expenses or any other liabilities that may have been incurred by the applicant.

(3) Payment for ABI waiver services is reduced by the individual's applied income, which is calculated by determining the amount of the applicant's countable income remaining after the deduction of an allowance for the personal needs of the individual equal to 200% of the federal poverty level, as well as any applicable community spouse's or family allowance, and amounts for incurred medical or remedial care expenses not subject to payment by a third party, as specified in 42 CFR 435.726.

(c) The programmatic requirements for eligibility are as follows:

An individual shall:

- (1) Be between the ages of 18 and 64 at the time the application is completed;
- (2) Have an ABI, as defined in section 17b-260a-3(1) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;
- (3) Meet the criteria for one of the level-of-care categories described in subsection 17b-260a-9(d) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;
- (4) Have the cognitive ability to actively participate in the development of the individual's service plan or, absent such ability, have a legal representative who acts on the individual's behalf to perform these tasks. Participation includes, but is not limited to, selection, hiring, direction, and termination of providers;
- (5) Voluntarily choose to live in the community by participating in the ABI waiver program;
- (6) Wish to utilize ABI waiver services;
- (7) Develop, in consultation with the person-centered team, a service plan that provides assistance that reasonably addresses and mitigates identified risks;
- (8) Understand and acknowledge, or the individual's legal representative shall understand and acknowledge, that there are risks inherent in living in the community; that the individual's safety cannot be guaranteed; and that the individual accepts full responsibility if the individual chooses to live in the community, thereby absolving the department from any liability for any and all consequences that may result from this choice;
- (9) Understand and acknowledge, or the individual's legal representative shall understand and acknowledge, that the individual is the employer of any household employees, as defined in section 17b-260a-3(24) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, and shall sign a written document accepting full responsibility as the employer of such providers;
- (10) Maintain eligibility for Medicaid;
- (11) Need waiver services, which means that the individual needs a minimum of two waiver services, on at least a monthly basis;
- (12) Have a total service plan cost that does not cause the ABI waiver program's expenditures to exceed total appropriated funding limits for the ABI waiver program;
- (13) Have a total service plan cost that does not exceed the individual cap that applies to the individual, as set forth in sections 17b-260a-10(a) and (b); and
- (14) Agree to pay, if applicable, any applied income toward the cost of services rendered under the waiver, as required under section 17b-260a-11(b).

(d) Notwithstanding subsections (a), (b) and (c) of this section, an individual shall not be eligible for ABI waiver program services if:

- (1) The individual:

- (A) Receives services under any other Medicaid waiver program;
- (B) Has received and benefited from ABI waiver services, no longer requires the services, no longer meets level-of-care criteria, and can continue to reside in the community without the support of ABI waiver program services;
- (C) Has a cognitive or behavioral dysfunction due solely to an intellectual disability or chronic mental illness, rather than an ABI, as determined by a licensed medical professional;
- (D) Requires inpatient care in an acute care hospital, NF, ABI NF, ICF-IID or CDH, or who is otherwise institutionalized for a period of ninety days or more, provided, however, such durational limitation may be extended for an additional thirty days upon submission of documentation from a medical professional indicating that the applicant's discharge is expected within thirty days;
- (E) Demonstrates consistent and extreme physical, verbal, or sexual aggression toward others;
- (F) Demonstrates behaviors that violate the law or are contrary to community integrated living;
- (G) Is currently incarcerated, and not expected to be returned to the community within ninety days;
- (H) Lacks mental capacity to participate in the program;
- (I) Refuses services that are vital to health, welfare, and safety; or
- (J) Behaves in ways that are detrimental to the individual's health, welfare, and safety, which includes, but is not limited to:
 - (i) Participating in illegal or criminal activity;
 - (ii) Using, or threatening to use, weapons, chemicals, or firearms for the purpose of causing harm or injury to self or others; or
 - (iii) Compromising the safety of caregivers, staff, and others in the home or community.
- (2) The conditions at the individual's home or on the grounds of the home are hazardous due to:
 - (A) Illegal or criminal activity;
 - (B) The presence of animals that are dangerous or not properly secured or maintained;
 - (C) Poor sanitation; or
 - (D) Violations of local or state fire, zoning, or housing codes that pose a risk to the health, welfare, and safety of the individual or providers; or
- (3) Persons who either reside in, or have regular access to, the individual's home are:
 - (A) Engaging in illegal or criminal activity;
 - (B) Behaving in a manner that is dangerous or jeopardizes the safety, health, or well-being of the individual, providers, or others;
 - (C) Interfering with the provider's delivery, or the individual's receipt, of services or acting in any way that affects a provider's access to the individual; or
 - (D) Threatening the individual verbally, physically, or sexually; or
- (4) In the opinion of the department, a service plan that is both cost-effective and reasonably ensures the health, welfare, and safety of the individual cannot be developed or implemented.
- (e) Individuals who are actively participating in the ABI waiver program and who turn 65 years of age shall be offered the choice of (1) remaining on the ABI waiver program; (2) accessing institutional placement; or (3) transitioning to the Connecticut Home Care Program for Elders.

(NEW) Sec. 17b-260a-6. Person-centered planning process

(a) The service plan shall be developed based on a person-centered planning model, as described in 42 CFR 441.301(c), as amended from time to time. The individual shall lead the planning process where possible, and in accordance with section 17b-260a-11(a) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.

(b) In addition to being led by the individual receiving services and supports, the person-centered planning process shall:
